“Cummins Mental Health Center’s CEO Honored”

On October 16, Senator Connie Lawson, on behalf of Governor Kernan, awarded Ann Borders the Sagamore of the Wabash Award, the highest honor that the Governor can bestow.

Ms. Borders was given the award in honor of a lifelong dedication to serving and advocating for individuals with mental illness and addictive disease. Ms. Borders has served as the President and CEO of Cummins Mental Health Center, Inc. since 1993.

The Sagamore of the Wabash Award is a personal tribute given to those who have rendered a distinguished service to the state. It has been awarded to astronauts, presidents, artists, and ordinary citizens in the past.

Cummins Mental Health Center, Inc. has been a provider of comprehensive behavioral health and addiction services for children, adolescents, adults, and older adults since 1972. For more information, visit their website at www.cumminsmhc.com.
